Most residents of Ledbury will have received a poll card for a 'Referendum on the Neighbourhood Plan for Ledbury'.

Polling will be on 6th December, with one question:

Do you want Herefordshire Council to use the neighbourhood plan for Ledbury to help it decide planning applications in the neighbourhood area?

(More here .)

Ledbury Needs You

Do you want to increase the town's protection against unplanned housing development?

Adopting our Neighbourhood Development Plan is a vital step in giving us more say in what gets developed where in our town and immediate surroundings. This referendum is your chance to make sure the Plan is adopted and forms part of the planning process.

Please Vote on 6th December

At the Community Hall, Lawnside Road, Holy Trinity Church or Ledbury Primary School (Check your polling card for details)

Find out more by calling in to the Council offices on Saturday 1st December between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The Plan is available now on the Council's website:

www.ledburytowncouncil.gov.uk/Article/

The most important document on the council's referendum page is the Ledbury Neighbourhood Development Plan 2018-2031

(NDP) dated October 2018. Printed copies of this are available in the library (in the Master's House, St. Katherine's) and Ledbury Town Council offices. Housing policy starts on page 22.

Update 23rd November: The Town Council has published a poster on the front page of its website, notifying its offices will additionally be open between 10:00 and 13:00 on Saturday 1st December for inspection of the NDP. A cleaned up version of its not-so-good JPEG image appears to the left of this text - please click on it to be taken to the correct page of its website.

Ledbury Neighbourhood Plan
