The Neil Maya Quartet plays
The Brubeck Project

For many people, the sound of Dave Brubeck's Take 5 is the sound of jazz. This popular American pianist and composer who died just a few years ago did more than perhaps anyone to bring jazz into the popular mainstream. Now Totnes-based musician Neil Maya has put together a group of some of the finest musicians in the South West to authentically reproduce the best known Dave Brubeck recordings such as It's a Raggy Waltz, Blue Rondo a la Turk, Unsquare Dance and of course Take 5

. The band has recently performed numerous sell-out shows including appearances at the Teignmouth Jazz Festival, and many shows throughout the South West of England.
