

NOBODY VOTED FOR THIS DISASTROUS BREXIT DEAL...

That was the message put out by Ledbury for Europe, a new group 'from Ledbury and surroundings, tin
Update: Bill Wiggin was The Spectator 18 Tory MPs who voted against May's deal this evening (15

Having climbed onto the fence (as stated last week in the Ledbury Reporter), Wiggin reverted at the last minute to his former stance. South Herefordshire MP Jesse Norman voted as he had previously indicated FOR May's deal. It was resoundingly defeated by 230 votes - the biggest on record for a sitting government. Did somebody say something like "strong and stable"?

It seems the Ledbury group is getting a lot of support, judging by the 'Brexitometer' on display in Ledbury's High Street this morning:

Ledbury's view of May's Brexit
