

The Brexit Party's Website

Written by Willy Biggun

Friday, 22 November 2019 19:34 -

Ed: ...got stuck on Day 9 of its 'Advent Calendar' counting down to the general election, but the price Mr Farage would have to pay to buy the domain is still increasing...

Read more...

Voters in my constituency of North Herefordshire will be denied the opportunity to vote for the Brexit party, owing to a pact between Nigel and our glorious leader Boris, whereby my large majority in 2017 could not be split between the two parties. Those who have the temerity to stand against me on December 12th will be candidates from the Labour Party, Lib Dems and the Greens.

Candidate details, including comments about my directorship of a Bermuda-based company that advises on how to launch hedge funds in tax havens can be found here .

Mr Farage failed to secure the domain thebrexitparty.com , thus letting this scurrilous 'donkeys' crowd perpetrate the truth about poor old Nigel.... The asking price for the domain started at a million quid and is rising by £50k per day (or just under 58p per second).

The Brexit Party's Website

Written by Willy Biggun

Friday, 22 November 2019 19:34 -

