

Setting up a car club

Written by Herefordshire Council

Tuesday, 13 April 2010 09:46 - Last Updated Monday, 26 April 2010 10:46

Herefordshire Council's integrated transport team and Greening the Village, St James and Bartonsham are hosting a special event aimed at encouraging more county residents to set up and join car clubs so they not only save money but help the planet as well.

More than 100,000 people in the UK are already members of car clubs where they can book cars for specific periods rather than having to own their own vehicle.