It's time for some Old Year's Resolutions, and top of everyone's list is - Start Morris Dancing!

Funny you should ask, 'cos Silurian Border Morris Men just happen to be running a taster session on Sat 4th November at 2pm. Come to The Lyttleton Rooms, next to Malvern Priory, to see some dancing, have a go and drink some free beer in the Weavers afterwards.

That's right, FREE BEER. Musicians interested in giving the energetic Border repertoire a go are also very welcome!

Get in touch to book your place (and your mate's place too, 'cos you're not making a fool of yourself on your own, are you?)
