

Bulmer's lorry crash in the Homend

Written by John Eager

Saturday, 19 September 2009 12:12 - Last Updated Monday, 28 September 2009 09:57

Remember this? Circa 1970 a Bulmer's lorry crashed into the then Grocer's in the Homend next to the Cottage Hospital. This act signalled the end for the Grocer's, and the beginning for Carey Gunmaker's who took on the building.

If you have any old photographs of Ledbury and the surrounding area that you think would be of interest to Ledbury Portal readers publish them yourself , email them to the us or pop them into Ice Bytes where we will scan and publish for you.