

Finishing off a poker

Written by John Eager

Tuesday, 16 September 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 October 2008 13:28

Alex Wilkins of The Forge, New House Farm, Stretton Grandison completes his work on a poker.

During h.Art Week Alex and his son Floyd will be giving daily demonstrations in the art of blacksmithing.

www.alexwilkinsblacksmiths.com

Finishing off a poker

Written by John Eager

Tuesday, 16 September 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 October 2008 13:28

Highly detailed and finished, this poker stand is a true work of art. It is made of high-quality metal and is finished with a black powder coat. The stand is designed to hold a poker, but it can also be used to hold other items. It is a great addition to any poker room or game room.