Malvern's Music Fundraiser held a charity gig at Mount Pleasant Hotel Malvern last Saturday (24th April), all proceeds going to the Haiti Earthquake Appeal, thanks to the hosts, the organisers, the bands who took part for no fee and to all members of the community who turned up to support the event. A beautiful day and a great venue.

As I was also playing at the event, I didn't get time to interview everyone and learn names properly, so here are some pictures from the day (sack the journalist!!!)
