Ashley Foster releases debut album – The Superior Sibling

The Superior Sibling is the first album to be released by singer/songwriter Ashley Foster from Cradley on the Herefordshire/Worcestershire border. The album will go out on digital release this Friday and will be available for download on iTunes.

Ashley recently recorded a live session for BBC Introducing with Andrew Marston from BBC Hereford and Worcester, which will be aired on Andrew's regular Friday night slot this week (28th January).

Ashley commented "It's the first time that I have devoted myself to a project that is all about what I can achieve as a musician, without relying on other people. It's been hard work as I have written all the music and lyrics myself but I am really proud of what I have achieved. So far I have had fantastic feedback from everyone that has heard the album".

Ashley has also made a music video to accompany the title track of the album The Superior Sibling. The video can be viewed at www.myspace.com/ashleyfoster or by typing Superior Sibling into Youtube.

Ashley trained as a classical guitarist, pianist and singer. He has shared a stage with bands such as McFly and Maroon 5. Ashley also won Battle of the bands at Huddersfield University where he achieved a 2-1 degree in Music.
