One of our members (Lisa Jones) who runs a shop in Ledbury and supports the building of a new store in Ledbury has, again, received an item that has caused her much concern and worry.

This item, a photocopy of another article titled ""tesco cuts its prices and your hair" with the words " FOOL! NOW YOUR NOT SAFE!" written across the top of the article was posted to Lisa, this comes after she was accused of being "stupid" and "naive" by a LOTS member on their face book group page (the comment has since been deleted).

We at LESS are not accusing any person or persons of sending this item, this post is to inform that the police have been contacted and any further intimidation will also be reported to the police.
