Mixed media artists Sue Sobczak (above), Penny Turnbull, Cheryl Kirby, Pippa Coombs and Angie Hughes are displaying their latest work at Ledbury Artplace as part of h.Art week under the title Adhesion.

There's some fantastic artwork on display here by the Advanced Study Group led by Angie Hughes. The studio is now open to the public where you can browse, watch a textile demo and have a go at some hand printing yourself. If you're looking for some interesting gifts such as brooches, cards or stunning original works of art take a look at Angie Hughes' Ledbury Artplace up along the Worcester Road.
