The Disappearing Act

Written by Lisle Turner

After their hugely successful Scorched, Hereford-based Open Sky returns to the Ledbury stage.

A dark, delirious magical cabaret is performed by three female performers in their twenties, forties and sixties telling the story of magician's assistant Edie Rose at different stages of her career.

Using visual physical theatre, new writing, song, puppetry, object manipulation and magic tricks, the show addresses themes of sexuality in performance, motherhood, the hopefulness of youth, the wisdom of experience, love, loss and identity.

Striking theatrical invention - The Stage

This is a really brilliant and innovative company, supported by inspirational writing from Lisle Turner
